

K-Love is an invaluable tool for positive family-oriented advice and inspiration to the community.
It is a continual source of comfort to me, and provides the community with an invaluable christian resource.
I believe that keeping K-Love on the air is in the public interest, and if a LPFM is given priority and therefore knocks K-Love off the air that a huge and unique resource would be lost.